The Center for East Asian Studies (CEAS) endeavors to broaden the East Asian focus in interdisciplinary scholarship for which UChicago is famous by supporting a wide range of events, graduate fellowships, and faculty research initiatives. Our activities support training in East Asian Studies and languages across an array of disciplines and professional schools on campus. CEAS works to enhance opportunities available to scholars both in the United States and abroad, and to foster communication and interdisciplinary collaboration among the community of professors and students at UChicago and throughout the wider East Asian Studies community. To these ends, CEAS sponsors a variety of activities including conferences, graduate workshops, film screenings, cultural events, public lectures, and other programs that promote understanding of the cultures and societies of China, Japan and Korea.

For more information about graduate fellowships—including conference and workshop travel grants, pre-dissertation and dissertation research grants, copy editing grants, and other offerings—visit our website <https://ceas.uchicago.edu/graduate-funding> (<https://ceas.uchicago.edu/graduate-funding/>). (<https://ceas.uchicago.edu/>)

In addition, the CEAS Film Library is one of the largest such collections in North America, containing over 7,000 titles from China, Japan, and Korea. It is particularly strong in independent film, documentaries, WWII issues, LGBTQ in East Asia, anime, Korean dramas, and Chinese Opera. The Film Library is free for UChicago student, staff, or faculty use. For more information, please visit <https://ceas.uchicago.edu/resources/ceas-film-library> (<https://ceas.uchicago.edu/resources/ceas-film-library/>).

For more information about all of our initiatives and to sign up for our email lists and weekly e-Bulletin, please visit <http://ceas.uchicago.edu>. For any questions, please reach out to eastasia@uchicago.edu
